Mrs I Elliott
Attucks Hotel
Phila. Pa.

Dear Mrs Elliott:

I know you are not too surprised to hear from me. I am sure you have been hearing the baseball talk for some time now. Things certainly do not look any too good, but the people are all making money, and I guess they want some place to go, so we are going ahead with plans to operate.

I am writing to ask you to save rooms for The Eagles (15 men) May 14th. They should arrive at the hotel about 8.30 PM.

Please let me know if you can accommodate them. Mr Manley will be with them.

I hope you are enjoying good health. I know you are being worked to death, as we all are. I have no help in the office even, but I am sure we will all make it. I hope to see you soon.

Very Truly Yours
